Sunday 2nd September 2018
Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity

Welcome to St. John's this morning

There will be cake and refreshments in the Centre after the service this morning, to welcome the Kim, Richard, Autumn-Rae, Fern, Eden and Zion to St. John's.

Thought for the week

Hearing and obeying Jesus gives our lives a strong foundation.

CLOSURE OF CENTRE AND COFFEE CONNECT. Work will now start on the kitchen this Monday, 3rd September and it is estimated to take 3-4 weeks. Coffee Connect will hopefully open towards the end of September. All groups can meet in the Church. We will put some Go-Pak tables in there if you need them.

Anne Hampshire is in Prinsted Care Home and would love to have visitors from St. John's.

The Grace Course will restart again next Sunday evening in the Church

The Monthly Prayer meeting will take place on Monday at 10.00am and 7.30pm in the Church. Please try and come to one of these meetings.

No Wednesday Communion this week. As from next week, Communion will be at 11.00am in the church.

Drop in Bible study will restart next Thursday at 12.20pm.
