Thought for the week

God always deserves our commitment and praise.

Welcome to our Services today, please join us for refreshments which will be served upstairs in the Centre after the Morning Service

Good News! The kitchen is finished and ready for Training. If you use the kitchen and haven't put your name down for training, please contact Barbara Wilson.

Coffee Connect will be re-opening on Wednesday, 31st October.

Please pray for the Superhero and Princess party on Wednesday, 31st October between 5-6pm.

Saturday, 3rd November
Come and help clear up the Church Grounds
10.00am

Garden Work Party

Ruth Heelan has put together this fascinating booklet about Southbourne to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the start of WW1. The cost is £1.00 and if you would like a copy, please speak with Susie in the office.

We have received a lovely email from a lady who came to the Harvest Fun Day. Do have a read of it on the notice board at the back of the Church.

Please can everyone check that all meetings are booked in the Office Diary. Thank you.

Man Up will meet in the Church Centre. We will be looking at the next in our new series on Tough Questions, with Martin Fair leading the first discussion on "Is everything fixed in advance?" Please see the St. John's website for the full programme and come and join the discussion starting at 8 p.m. in the Centre.

What's on

We need help to take items to the Food Bank each week. Please speak to Susie if you can help.

Tuesday Parish Prayers 9.30am upstairs in the Centre. We will be praying for the west area of Prinsted including Ham Lane and Prinsted Lane

Eric and Rachel Mande will be at St John's for both services on Sunday 4th November. There will be an Open House tea in the Centre on Sunday 3-5pm. All welcome, especially if you haven't met them yet, to hear their plans for outreach in Eric's village.
