This year, Tearfund is focussing on working with people affected by climate change. Please spread the news to anyone who would enjoy a quiz, either to join your team or form their own, and give them my email address. Once again, we are asking if people would like to make cakes or puddings to keep the teams going during the quiz, so for an extra donation you can have one delivered to your door. If you really don't like quizzing (you know who you are!) perhaps have a Games night and ask for donations to join in.

Hope to see all you quizzers there! Sarah
